UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ALASKA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 3:24-CR-00099; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on August 21, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Panos Anastasiou,, Court Case Number 3:24-CR-00099, the United States District Court for the District of Alaska entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> Berretta 92FS 9mm pistol SN: A270051Z from 1306 W 25th Avenue, Anchorage, Alaska (24-FBI-010409) which was seized from Panos Anastasiou on September 18, 2024 at 1306 W 25th Avenue, located in Anchorage, AK

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 31, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 222 W. 7th Avenue, #4, Room 229, Anchorage, AK 99513-7564, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Seth Beausang, 222 W. 7th Avenue, #9, Room 253, Anchorage, AK 99513-7567. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA, CRIMINAL DIVISION

COURT CASE NUMBER: 226CR00907KML; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on November 03, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Julian Adolfo Linarez Torres, Court Case Number 226CR00907KML, the United States District Court for the District of Arizona entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

380 rounds .50 caliber PMC Bronze FMJ 660 grain ammunition and 40 rounds 7.62x39mm ammunition (26-ICE-000804) which was seized from Julian Adolfo Linarez Torres on July 07, 2026 at San Luis Port of Entry, located in San Luis, AZ

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 05, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 401 W Washington Street, Phoenix, AZ 85003, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney LaTanya Wateland, 40 North Central Avenue, Suite 1800, Phoenix, AZ 85004. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 10, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 405 West Congress Street, Suite 1500, Tucson, AZ 85701, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Arturo A. Aguilar, 405 W. Congress Street, Suite 4800, Tucson, AZ 85701. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9.

Matthew Christopher Corlew, Court Case Number 5:26-CR-00148-JFW, the United States District Court for the Central District of California entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

AR 9mm caliber rifle with attached silencer seized from Matthew Corlew, 13833 Hazel Drive, Lytle Creek, CA on 07/13/26. (26-FBI-003221)

The custodian of the property is the Federal Bureau of Investigation located at 11000 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 1700, Los Angeles, CA 90024

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 28, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 3470 Twelfth Street, Room 134, Riverside, CA 92501, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Thi Hoang Ho, 312 N. Spring St., 11th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90012. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 4:25-CR-00362 AMO; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 20, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Herron, Maurice, Court Case Number 4:25-CR-00362 AMO, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

GLOCK GMBH 30 PISTOL CAL:45 SN:VNT006 (25-ATF-026339) which was seized from MAURICE HERRON on January 07, 2025 at 1200 Block of Peralta St, located in Oakland, CA

13 Rounds AGUILA Ammunition CAL:45 (25-ATF-026340) which was seized from MAURICE HERRON on January 07, 2025 at 1200 Block of Peralta St, located in Oakland, CA

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 22, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 1301 Clay Street, Suite 400S, Oakland, CA 94612, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney David Countryman, 450 Golden Gate Avenue, 9th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94102. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). > Miscellaneous Firearms, Ammunition and Accessories (24-FBI-002584), including the following items: 6 Magazine; 37 9mm caliber rounds; 75 .45 caliber rounds; 135 .40 caliber rounds; 1 Del-Ton DTI-15 Rifle, Ser No: S271543; 64 .223 caliber rounds; 1 Black pistol holster; 39 7.62x39mm caliber rounds; 1 NCStar scope which was seized from Andre Fields on January 10, 2024 at 1149 Southview Drive, Apartment 103, located in Oxon Hill, MD

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 22, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 333 Constitution Ave., NW, Washington, DC 20001, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Rick Blaylock, 601 D Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20530. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. Notice is hereby given that on November 16, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Samonta Leondre James, Court Case Number 1:26CR29, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

GLOCK GMBH 29GEN4 Pistol CAL:10 SN:BYNT271 (26-ATF-026726) which was seized from Samonta Leondre JAMES on June 24, 2026 at 500 NW 1st Ave, located in Gainesville, FL

7 Rounds PMC Ammunition CAL:10 (26-ATF-026727) which was seized from Samonta Leondre JAMES on June 24, 2026 at 500 NW 1st Ave, located in Gainesville, FL

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 17, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 401 SE First Avenue Room 243, Gainesville, FL 32601, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Winifred Acosta, 111 North Adams Street, 4th Floor, Tallahassee, FL 32301. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA, ATLANTA DIVISION
COURT CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-00368-SCJ-LRS; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 29, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Florencio Magana-Sarabia, Court Case Number 1:23-CR-00368-SCJ-LRS, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> One (1) Taurus G2C, 9mm caliber pistol w/magazine, serial number 1C130625 (24-DEA-707263) which was seized from Erik Santana Sanchez AKA, Genaro Lopez-Diaz on October 20, 2023 at 4280 Loveless Drive, located in Ellenwood, GA.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 02, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 75 Ted Turner Drive S.W., Suite 2211, Atlanta, GA 30303, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Nicholas L. Evert, 75 Ted Turner Drive S.W., Suite 600, Atlanta, GA 30303. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF IOWA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 26-CR-00033; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 19, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Vance, Damaurey, Court Case Number 26-CR-00033, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> Firearm, ammunition and accessories seized from Cedar Rapids, IA (25-FBI-008815), including the following items: 1 Smith and Wesson 9mm pistol, Ser No: HKT3258; 1 One 9mm magazine, Ser No: NA; 1 Four (4) rounds ammumition, Ser No: NA which was seized from Damaurey Vance on or about September 11, 2025 located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 21, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 111 - 7th Avenue SE, Cedar Rapids, IA 52401, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Brian Keogh, 111 - 7th Avenue SE, Cedar Rapids, IA 52401. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 05, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, United States Courthouse, 219 South Dearborn Street, 20th Floor, Chicago, IL 60604, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Hanna Helwig, 219 South Dearborn, Room 500, Chicago, IL 60604. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). Notice is hereby given that on September 10, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. London Marqiste Smith, Court Case Number 2:25-CR-20052, the United States District Court for the District of Kansas entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

Miscellaneous firearm and ammunition (25-FBI-004800), including the following items: 1 Glock 22, Ser No: PDH678; 1 9 rounds .40 caliber, Ser No: n/a; 1 10 rounds .40 caliber, Ser No: n/a which was seized from London Marqiste Smith on July 02, 2025 at near 2308 Hallock Street, inside vehicle/found on person, located in Kansas City, KS

Miscellaneous firearm and ammunition (26-FBI-006392), including the following items: 1 Glock 21, Ser No: HYM954; 1 1 Rounds n/a Ammunition CAL:.45, Ser No: n/a

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 30, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, US District Courthouse, 401 N. Market, Wichita, KS 67202, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Aaron Smith, 301 N. Main, Suite 1200, Wichita, KS 67202. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Notice is hereby given that on July 15, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Edel Freyre Soto, Court Case Number 2:23-CR-00268, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> $21,870.00 U.S. Currency (23-DEA-707195) which was seized from Jessica Freyre and Daphne Freyre on September 11, 2023 at St. John Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigation Division, 1801 West Airline Highway, located in LaPlace, LA

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 18, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 500 Poydras Street, New Orleans, LA 70130, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Alexandra Giavotella, 650 Poydras Street, Suite 1600, New Orleans, LA 70130. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA, CRIMINAL DIVISION
COURT CASE NUMBER: 26-CR-00113; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 20, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. DUSTIN LEE SEITZ, Court Case Number 26-CR-00113, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

One (1) black in color Motorola Moto G Power 5G-2024 Cell Phone Ser No: ZY22KLK45M (26-FBI-004091).

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 21, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 500 Poydras Street, New Orleans, LA 70130, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Alexandra Giavotella, 650 Poydras Street, Suite 1600, New Orleans, LA 70130. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a).

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 23, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 300 Fannin Street, Suite 3201, Shreveport, LA 71101, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Allison Foster, 300 Fannin Street, Suite 3201, Shreveport, LA 71101. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

COURT CASE NUMBER: 26-CR-44 (JRT-DLM); NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 20, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Teodros Raymond Pluntz, Court Case Number 26-CR-44 (JRT-DLM), the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

25-CBP-000958: an Apple iPhone with Serial Number K49WMX035X, which was seized from Teodros Raymond Plutz on September 22, 2025 in Burnsville, MN.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 24, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 202 U.S. Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, MN 55415, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Craig Baune, 600 U.S. Courthouse, 300 South Fourth Street, Minneapolis, MN 55415. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a).

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
COURT CASE NUMBER: CR 26-88-BLG-KSL; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 22, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. CHARLIE WRIGHT REIMERS, Court Case Number CR 26-88-BLG-KSL, the United States District Court for the District of Montana entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

a. Rock Island Armory (Armscor of the Philippines), model 200, .38 caliber revolver, S/N: RIA2654537 (26-ATF-017770); and

b. Any associated accessories and ammunition, including 6 rounds of Winchester .38 caliber ammunition (26-ATF-017771).

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 05, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 2601 Second Ave. North, Suite 1200, Billings, MT 59101, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Bryan T. Dake, 2601 Second Ave. North, Suite 3200, Billings, MT 59101. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 1:25CR286; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 19, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Nathan Paul Vogler, Court Case Number 1:25CR286, the United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> Apple iPhone 12 Pro Max, International Mobile Equipment Identity: 354440893132936 Ser No: 354440893132936 (25-CBP-001059) which was seized from Nathan Vogler on August 25, 2025 at 2301 N. Glenn Avenue, located in Winston-Salem, NC

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 20, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 324 W. Market Street, Greensboro, NC 27401, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Lynne Klauer, 101 S. Edgeworth Street, 4th Floor, Greensboro, NC 27401. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. > 1533 LUCANO LANE, LAS VEGAS, NEVADA 89117, MORE PARTICULARLY DESCRIBED AS: LOT 22 IN BLOCK 7 OF VALLEY WEST VIII - UNIT 4, AS SHOWN BY MAP THEREOF ON FILE IN BOOK 35 OF PLATS, PAGE 31 IN THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY RECORDER OF CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA, TOGETHER WITH ALL IMPROVEMENTS AND APPURTENANCES THEREON; APN: 163-05-618-002 (16-IRS-000385)

Any person claiming a legal interest in the Defendant Property must file a verified Claim with the court within 60 days from the first day of publication (November 13, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site and an Answer to the complaint or motion under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure within 21 days thereafter. 18 U.S.C. § 983(h)(1) permits a court to impose a civil fine on anyone asserting an interest in property which the court determines was frivolous.

The verified Claim and Answer must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 333 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, NV 89101, and copies of each served upon Assistant United States Attorney Mark J. McDonald, 501 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Suite 1100, Las Vegas, NV 89101, or default and forfeiture will be ordered. See, 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(4)(A) and Rule G(5) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
COURT CASE NUMBER: 25 CR. 105 (KMK); NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on September 30, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Eric Kyu, Court Case Number 25 CR. 105 (KMK), the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

The following specific property, all of which was seized by the Government on or about August 7, 2024, from the residence of the Defendant at the time of his arrest (24-FBI-010426):

One silver SanDisk USB, marked with barcode E7326645;

One Microsoft surface computer;

One Cynagone cellphone, model A0001 One plus; and

One desktop computer, Ryzen 5000 series

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 17, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court, 500 Pearl Street, Room 120, New York, NY 10007, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Emily Deininger, Jacob K. Javits Federal Building, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, NY 10278. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court’s disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation;

include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. 14 Rounds 9mm WINCHESTER-WESTERN Ammunition (25-ATF-027997) which was seized from Travon Williams on April 25, 2025 Cleveland, Ohio

4 Rounds Assorted 9mm Ammunition (25-ATF-027998) which was seized from Travon Williams on April 25, 2025 in Cleveland, Ohio

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 28, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, Carl B. Stokes U.S. Courthouse, 801 West Superior Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44113, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Jason Katz, 400 U.S. Courthouse, 801 West Superior Avenue, Cleveland, OH 44113. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 14, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 101 North Fifth Street, Room 208, Muskogee, OK 74401, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Clay A. Compton, 520 Denison Avenue, Muskogee, OK 74401. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). $4,661.00 in US Currency (25-FBI-008289) which was seized from Deon Hanton on October 29, 2024 at 2465 N 50th Street, Unit 401, located in Philadelphia, PA

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 31, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 2609 United States Courthouse, 601 Market Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Branwen O'Donnell, 615 Chestnut Street, Suite 1250, Philadelphia, PA 19106. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 2:25-CR-1114-RMG; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on June 22, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Quinzell Robinson, Court Case Number 2:25-CR-1114-RMG, the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> Dark Drone with Blue Tape (26-TRA-000001) which was seized from Quinzell Robinson on April 01, 2026 at Field Off Campbell Thicket Road, located in Ridgeville, SC

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 07, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 85 Broad Street, Charleston, SC 29401, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Carrie Fisher Sherard, 55 Beattie Place, Suite 700, Greenville, SC 29601. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
COURT CASE NUMBER: 5:25CR50134; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 21, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Joshua Allen, Court Case Number 5:25CR50134, the United States District Court for the District of South Dakota entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

> 25-FBI-005835, including the following items: 1 Pink Apple iPhone 16 cellular phone, Ser No: D5QL6CVJJ7; 1 black Apple iWatch, Ser No: unknown which was seized from Joshua Allen on August 07, 2025, in Rapid City, SD

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 30, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 515 Ninth St., Rm 302, Rapid City, SD 57709, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Carl Thunem, P.O. Box 2638, Sioux Falls, SD 57101. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a).

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
COURT CASE NUMBER: 3:25-CR-463-K; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 08, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Gregory Geegi George, Court Case Number 3:25-CR-463-K, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

Samsung Galaxy Note 10 Plus, bearing serial number R3CMB0MSPWE (25-FBI-002645) which was seized from Gregory Geegi George on or about February 25, 2025 in Dallas, TX

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 27, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 1100 Commerce Street, Room 1452, Dallas, TX 75242, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney John Penn, 1100 Commerce Street, Third Floor, Dallas, TX 75242. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
COURT CASE NUMBER: 1:23-CR-00522; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on August 12, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Daniel Robles-Contreras, Court Case Number 1:23-CR-00522, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

iPhone XR cell phone, IMEI: G0NY315HKXKP Ser No: G0NY315HKXKP seized from Daniel Robles-Contreras on July 15, 2023 in Brownsville, TX.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 03, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, Garza Vela Federal Courthouse, 600 E. Harrison Street, Brownsville, TX 78520-5106, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Tyler Foster, 800 N. Shoreline Blvd., Suite 500, Corpus Christi, TX 78401. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. One (1) Apple Cellular Phone
One (1) ATT Sim Card
One (1) LG Cellular Phone
One (1) Seagate Hard Drive (Contains extraction reports); and One (1) Quantum (Contains working directories).

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 07, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 515 Rusk Street, Houston, TX 77002, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Tyler Foster, 800 N. Shoreline Blvd., Suite 500, Corpus Christi, TX 78401. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. Any person claiming a legal interest in the Defendant Property must file a verified Claim with the court within 60 days from the first day of publication (October 23, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site and an Answer to the complaint or motion under Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure within 21 days thereafter. 18 U.S.C. § 983(h)(1) permits a court to impose a civil fine on anyone asserting an interest in property which the court determines was frivolous.

The verified Claim and Answer must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 1300 Victoria St., Laredo, TX 78040, and copies of each served upon Assistant United States Attorney Mary Ellen Smyth, 11204 McPherson Road, Ste. 100A, Laredo, TX 78045, or default and forfeiture will be ordered. See, 18 U.S.C. § 983(a)(4)(A) and Rule G(5) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition not later than 11:59 PM EST 30 days after the date of final publication of this notice. See 28 C.F.R. Section 9.3(a). UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION
COURT CASE NUMBER: 2:26-CR-00140; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on November 10, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Preston Daniel Waldrop, Court Case Number 2:26-CR-00140, the United States District Court for the District of Utah entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

1 Hewlett Packard Laptop computer S/N: 5cg2703msx and 1 Samsung Galaxy cell phone Serial No: 355030760727675, (26-FBI-003261), which was seized from Preston Daniel Waldrop on or about March 23, 2026, at or near 1390 block of East Luck Spring Dr, Millcreek, Utah.

1 Samsung Galaxy A16 cell phone Serial No: r5cxc0xf2aw (26-FBI-003262) which was seized from Preston Daniel Waldrop on or about March 23, 2026, at or near the 1390 block of East Luck Spring Dr, Millcreek, Utah.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 13, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 351 S. West Temple, Salt Lake City, UT 84101, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Travis K. Elder, United States Attorney's Office, 111 South Main Street, Suite 1800, Salt Lake City, UT 84111-2176. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9.

Notice is hereby given that on October 05, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Paul Cosmos Voskanyan, Court Case Number 2:26CR51, the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

Assorted Jewelry, VL: $51,030.00 (26-DEA-004523), including the following items: 1 Marquise Cut and Princess Cut Diamond Cluster Earrings; 1 Men's Rolex Presidential Model Watch which was seized from Paul Cosmos Voskanyan on or about November 04, 2025 in Virginia Beach, VA; and Approximately $150,000.00 U.S. Currency (26-DEA-725253) which was seized by Virginia Beach Police on or about November 04, 2025 in Virginia Beach, VA.

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 20, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, Walter E. Hoffman United States Courthouse, 600 Granby Street, Norfolk, VA 23510, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Kevin Hudson, 101 W. Main Street, Suite 8000, Norfolk, VA 23510. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. 2019 Maserati Levante VIN# ZN661XUS2KX309487 (24-DEA-710121) which was seized from Chauncey T. Harvey on February 21, 2024 at 753 West 6th Drive, located in Mesa, AZ

2014 Maserati Granturismo VIN# ZAM45VLA9E0076095 (24-DEA-710264) which was seized from Chauncey T. Harvey on February 21, 2024 at 753 West 6th Drive, located in Mesa, AZ

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 08, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 517 East Wisconsin Avenue, 3rd Floor, Milwaukee, WI 53202, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Gail Hoffman, #530 Federal Building, 517 East Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, WI 53202. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn

statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (October 31, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 217 W. King Street, 1st Floor, Martinsburg, WV 25401, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Morgan McKee, 1125 Chapline Street, Suite 3000, P.O. Box 591, Wheeling, WV 26003. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
COURT CASE NUMBER: 1:26-CR-00040; NOTICE OF FORFEITURE

Notice is hereby given that on October 30, 2026, in the case of U.S. v. Casey Rygh, Court Case Number 1:26-CR-00040, the United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia entered an Order condemning and forfeiting the following property to the United States of America:

SCCY INDUSTRIES, LLC (SKYY IND.) CPX-2 PISTOL CAL:9 SN:595258 (25-ATF-027343) which was seized from Casey RYGH on August 25, 2025 at 4226 Matoaka Rd, located in Rock, WV

The United States hereby gives notice of its intent to dispose of the forfeited property in such manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the forfeited property must file an ancillary petition within 60 days of the first date of publication (November 07, 2026) of this Notice on this official government internet web site, pursuant to Rule 32.2 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1). The ancillary petition must be filed with the Clerk of the Court, 601 Federal Street, Room 2303, Bluefield, WV 24701, and a copy served upon Assistant United States Attorney Justin Marlowe, 300 Virginia Street, East, Room 4000, Charleston, WV 25301. The ancillary petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the forfeited property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Following the Court's disposition of all ancillary petitions filed, or if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period specified above for the filing of such ancillary petitions, the United States shall have clear title to the property and may warrant good title to any subsequent purchaser or transferee.

The government may also consider granting petitions for remission or mitigation, which pardon all or part of the property from the forfeiture. A petition must include a description of your interest in the property supported by documentation; include any facts you believe justify the return of the property; and be signed under oath, subject to the penalty of perjury, or meet the requirements of an unsworn statement under penalty of perjury. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1746. For the regulations pertaining to remission or mitigation of the forfeiture, see 28 C.F.R. Sections 9.1 - 9.9. The criteria for remission of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(a). The criteria for mitigation of the forfeiture are found at 28 C.F.R. Section 9.5(b). The petition for remission need not be made in any particular form and may be filed online or in writing. You should file a petition for remission not later than 11:59 PM EST 30
